

Position: SAS/R Programmer - Temporary

Fidelity is hiring a short-term (6 months), part-time SAS/R programmer. This position will be located in Boston, MA

Primary Responsibilities

Convert over 500 SAS programs to R using the tidyverse framework. Expert skills in understanding and translating simple IO operations written in SAS and good knowledge of translating quantitative/statistical models from SAS to R by verifying the model parameters and models outputs. Good knowledge of porting commonly used functions by building modules/packages in R. Train SAS programmer in how to understand, use and modify the new R (tidyverse) code. Rapidly develop software based on requirement documents, prototypes, or verbal requirements.

Education and Experience

BS in Computer Science or equivalent degree and 5 plus years of professional experience in SAS and R (tidyverse). Exposure and experience in Linux & Windows. Preferred other experience: C-shell, Bash, Cygwin, Python, DOS batch, Emacs. Independent, results-oriented problem solver with a passion for software engineering. Strong understanding of mathematics. Great communication skills and natural collaborator. Familiarity with modern software development processes, experience working in an iterative agile development .

Interested candidates should send their resume to Phil.Thayer@fmr.com